Ballon-Stutz.

At Lebanon Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock Rabbi Max Levine united in marriage Samuel Ballon of Willimantic and Dorothy Stutz of Lebanon. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's father, Abraham Stutz. Guests were present from Willimantic, Norwich, Colchester, Hartford, New York and Boston. The bride was given away by her father, and the couple were attended by Miss Cella Stutz, sister of the bride, and Benjamin and Miss Jennie Ballon, brother and sister of the groom. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ballon will reside in this city, where the former is in business.

Water Running Over the Dam.

At the pumping station at Mansfield, as the result of the recent rainfall, the water is now running over the dam, and water power is being used to operate the pumps. Steam has been used for the pumps much of the time during the summer and the present condition of the water supply is a welcome change.

City's Disbursements.

The city payroll for the week ending September 2 was apportioned as follows: Water department $98.63; police department $14.23; street department $202.70; constructing services $29.75.

Return from Lake.

September weather at Lake Wampanaug is making some of the Willimantic cottagers there think of the comforts of home. Among the families who have returned to the city from the lake are those of Frederick Sanderson of Valley street and Charles Jordan of North street.

NEW MODEL SCHOOL FOR THE NORMAL

Hop River School to Be Used—Normal's 23d Year Opens Today.

The Willimantic state normal school opens its 23d year this morning at 9 o'clock, with Henry T. Burr beginning his eighth year as its principal. During this time the work and scope of the school have been constantly broadened and extended, and this year, following Principal Burr's policy of advancement, another new model school will increase the efficiency of the institution.

At His Boyhood Home.

G. M. Hills, who has been the guest of his son, Philip S. Hills of Church street, is now at East Hampton, the place of his birth and where he passed his childhood. He has a brother and sister there, and is the guest of the latter, Mrs. Henry Burr. Mr. Hills will come back to Willimantic before returning several weeks from now to his home at Mill Hill, Pa. His son, O. B. Hills, who came on with him, returned Saturday.

Trust Company Meeting.

Col. William H. Hall of South Willimantic, Frank R. Rockworth of Franklin and Henry R. Woodward of Mansfield were the out of town members present at the regular meeting of the Willimantic Trust company on Tuesday morning. The reports that were read showed that the company has prospered since its organization six months ago.

LOCATED DELINQUENT ON PERSONAL TAX

John Wolinski Arrested When He Returned from Greene, R. I.

Non-payment of the personal tax cost John Wolinski of 121 Chapman street $2.20 in the police court before Judge Arnold Tuesday morning. When a number of other delinquents were called before the court recently, John was one of them. He had disappeared. When he came back to the city from Greene, R. I., a day or two ago, Chief Richmond of the police department had a warrant ready for him and Officer Allan McArthur duly served it. Wolinski paid and left the court room, a wiser man, at least in regard to personal taxes.

Selections Sanctioned Bills.

The selection of the town of Windham held their monthly meeting in the town building on Tuesday afternoon. They gave their sanction to the bills for the month and no business out of the ordinary came up before them.

Shifted Automobiles.

The automobile in which Arthur P. Dorman and three friends had started for Hartford Tuesday morning broke down near the Bidwell house South Country. Help was summoned from Willimantic to tow back the machine. While the party continued later in another car.

It was stated Tuesday that negotiations are on for the purchase of No. 1 at Industrial place, recently vacated by the American Oil Engine company, by a concern that intends favorably of occupying here. The matter may be decided in a week.

More Pupils Attending School.

Registration of pupils in the schools of the town when they opened the year on Tuesday morning showed that the attendance is slightly larger, at least in Danielson. What is the smallest number of pupils in any of the rooms of the graded school on School street was 23.

Coming Caucuses.

Friday and Saturday will be caucuses days in many of the towns in this part of the state. In no particular case is there any contest of importance, and the indications are that the election interference will be confined principally to contests for the license question and on local fights for places on the boards of selection.

The tearing down of a section of overhead work of the trolley line at Al- lenger's place caused some inconvenience and a delay after 8 o'clock Monday night, when it was hoped nothing would occur to interrupt the quick handling of the holiday crowds. There was no power for something less than an hour.

Wanted to See the Flyers.

A surprising number of Windham county people had the aviation fever Monday, and nearly all took their cars to Worcester for treatment. When the Norwich boat train was backed into the Union station at Worcester that night it had only a few hundred cars, but so great was the crowd coming south to Putnam and Danielson, that the cars were not only necessary to add seven more coaches, and these were filled even as to standing room.
